	instead of merely providing subject knowledge. He presented different statistics regarding the population, education, job scenario etc. so that the students will become aware of the current scenario. In order not to feel frightened from the statistics, he enlightened the students with the power of confidence and positive attitude. According to him, “If we have a positive attitude, self-confidence and commitment to complete our goal, we can do anything.” He also encouraged students to dream and to be courageous enough to live that dream. He also guided students for self-development and how they can be more effective both in industry and in society. He also shared some secrets to success like setting the right goal for self and developing an action plan, developing the foresight etc. Students learnt the key concepts to be successful and were very motivated by this lecture. Courage to achieve success developed in students.
Outcome	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The student will have acquired broad knowledge of various fields and skills necessary for employment.</li> <li>2. The students will be able to choose a career that matches their aptitude and personality leading to professional success and satisfaction.</li> </ol>
